Milk & Honey is a farm to table restaurant established in June 2015, located inside the old Hotel Saylor in downtown Harlan. We are open for fast casual breakfast and lunch and selective dinner service. Our mission is to prepare delicious food made from scratch while using genuine ingredients. Most of our ingredients are sourced from Iowa and Nebraska producers, and our lunch menu items change with the seasons. We consistently strive to offer a legitimately portioned meal for your money, and always offer healthy, vegetarian, and gluten-free options. You can stay connected with our daily menu features and upcoming event by liking our Facebook or Instagram page.

At Milk & Honey, we want to provide our guests with a simple, yet high quality eating experience. We use fresh, local ingredients to create meals that appeal to a wide variety of tastes. It is also important that what we create is reasonably priced so that it is available to all people. Building and sustaining our local community is very important to us, so we strive to support as many producers of high quality, locally grown food as possible. Our Friday night dinners and Sunday brunches are very popular.

Our fast, casual dining service allows people to choose to order a quick meal, if their time is limited, or if it is not, to have a relaxing meal in our comfortable dining area, in the former lobby of the famous Saylor Hotel. We hope to preserve and promote our restaurant as one piece of Harlan's historical downtown.

Milk & Honey is located at 1101 7th Street, Harlan. 712-235-6455. Email.

Owners: Daniel and Ellen Walsh-Rosmann.

General Manager/Chef: Kelly Littlefield.

Services: Catering (new in 2017), good for groups, good for kids, takes reservations, take out, and walk-ins welcome.
